

Human Trafficking

What do I see?

What do I do?

What do I say?

Awareness and training are different.

Awareness = Recognition
Training = Empowerment

You are in a unique position

- Aviation is one of the primary modes of transportation used by traffickers.
- Cabin crew are front-line personnel (face-to-face).
- Are in a unique position to be able to recognize visible signs of trafficking.
- Have enough time with passengers to be able to observe questionable situations.

Scenarios

#1

#2

#3

#4

#5

Remember, Do No Harm

- Safety is your first concern.
- If you decide to take action, such as reporting it to authorities, do so in a way that will not endanger yourself or others.
- Do not confront suspected traffickers or transporters.
- Do not try to rescue possible victim.
- Do not display concern or alarm.

Thank You

What do you see?
Do you know
    what to do?
Do you know
    who to tell?

Find out the hotline numbers for your country and keep them handy when you fly.

AAI Tip Line

Call 802.872.6199

(tolls apply) in any country in the world, 24 hours

Nat'l Human Trafficking Resource Center

(for victim's services 888.373.7888 – toll free in US

In the US can also call 911

Thank you for your support in stopping Human Slavery

For more information email me at:

aviontraining1@gmail.com

And check out AAI's Tip Line App
Airlineamb.org/tip-line-app/

